

October 6-20, 2008

EVENTS

Clay Cairns Populate Carson Gallery

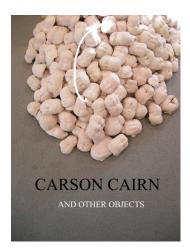

Through November 5

Main Gallery – WNC Carson City, Bristlecone Building Reception: Wednesday, Oct. 8 – 4:30-6:30 p.m. Artist Talk: Thursday, Oct. 9 – 4 p.m., Aspen 210

Information: 445-4294

Edw Martinez, an internationally known artist, sculptor and printmaker, brings "Carson Cairn and Other Objects to campus." For the past four years, Martinez has been working primarily as a sculptor. In his words: "I think of myself as an 'object maker' who chooses to work in clay. I work by hand in the medium's traditional manner while stretching its identity as a contemporary three-dimensional material."

http://www.wnc.edu/news/2008-09-19b.php

Latino Community Day Welcomes Families

Saturday, Oct. 11, 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
Sarah Winnemucca Hall, Aspen Building
Carson City Campus

Free Admission/Information: 445-3344

Campus tours, a catered lunch, raffle prizes, and arts and crafts for children are all part of WNC's annual Latino Community Day. The event is designed to bring the Latino community to the college to learn about programs, services and becoming a college student. Bilingual students will assist in translating short presentations by faculty. At right, Latino Student Club members and advisor Lupe Ramirez. http://www.wnc.edu/news/2008-09-30c.php

"Eat So They Can" Fund-raiser Set

Saturday, Oct. 11, 5:30 p.m.

Station Grille Restaurant, 1105 S. Carson St., Carson City

Tickets: $20

Information: ASWN: 4445-3323 or 445-3285

The Associated Students of Western Nevada invites all to an "Eat So They Can" banquet dinner/silent auction to help stop child hunger in Africa. Doors will open at 5:30 p.m. and dinner will start at 6 p.m. The event is part of "one huge global dinner party to raise money and awareness for childhood poverty." Purchase tickets at the ASWN office in the Dini Student Center, or by e-mail: wasilchu@wnc.nevada.edu.

Fallon Library Celebrates Re-Opening

Wednesday, Oct. 15, 4-7 p.m.

Beck Library, Virgil Getto Hall, Fallon Campus

The Beck Library will have a grand re-opening celebration to mark a $115,000 renovation that gives the library a whole new look. The renovation includes more electronic resources, more public access computers for students, and new furnishings. Librarian Mary Myers said the Beck Foundation, benefactor of the library, provided for the renovation. "With new paint, furniture and shelving, the library has a whole new feel. The renovations also makes the facility easier to use for those who have disabilities."

Texas Hold 'Em Poker Tournament

Thursday, Oct. 16, 6-11 p.m.

Peppermill Hotel Casino, Reno – Tahoe Ballroom $200 Entry Fee Information: 445-3240

Two of America's most popular pastimes, baseball and Texas hold 'em poker, are joining forces to benefit the Wildcats baseball team. Ten prizes are offered, including a grand prize of a one-year membership at Red Hawk Golf Course. http://www.wnc.edu/news/2008-09-30b.php

NEWS

Foundation Golf Tourney Succeeds

The final total raised by the 11th annual WNC Foundation Golf Tournament is still being calculated, but by any measure the 2008 tournament at Eagle Valley West Course on September 19 was a huge success. The tournament was co-sponsored by Greater Nevada Credit Union and supported by many generous donors. Perfect weather and a course in excellent shape made for a fun day of golfing. Trophy team at right: Mark Sattler, Steve McIntyre, Jim Kepler and Joe Temborino. Not shown is Wally Murray.

Scholarship Reception Offers Chance to Say Thanks

The ninth annual WNC Foundation Scholarship Reception drew close to 250 donors and student recipients on Friday, Sept. 26. The event offers a chance to celebrate the academic accomplishments of Western students who have earned scholarships during the past year, and gives scholarship recipients a chance to meet and thank donors personally for the important help they received. For the fall semester, 128 WNC students received $136,526 in scholarship awards. Students interested in applying for WNC spring scholarships should contact the Financial Assistance Office or apply online. http://www.wnc.edu/studentservices/financial/

MAKING A DIFFERENCE - Scholarship donor Nahid Sarvinehbaghi, left, meets her recipient, Kelly Hyatt, and her daughter.

ON CAMPUS

"SWEEEET!!"

Associated Students of Western Nevada College has a couple of sweet ideas at the Carson City campus – the student government leaders are sponsoring periodic Tuesday bake sales in the Dini Student Center. "Treat Tuesdays" will take place from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., as long as there's a sweet tooth waiting. Proceeds from the sales will help fund scholarships and other student initiatives.

SPRUCING UP ROTARY PLAZA

Carson City Rotarian Jorgee Radke and her husband, Fred (a former Rotarian) spent time recently repainting the Rotary Club Emblem on a marble sculpture created by their firm, Radke Tile & Marble. The sculpture commemorating "Rotary Plaza" on the Carson City campus is a tribute to the local service club which has generously supported Western Nevada College projects over the years.

HOLD THE DATE

"Living With Schizophrenia" - A Free Lecture

Thursday, Nov. 6, 4 p.m.

Cedar Building - Marlette Hall, WNC Carson City

Information: Susan Trist: 445-3275

Celebrate Disability Awareness Month with a free presentation by Dr. Frederick Frese, a psychologist who was diagnosed with schizophrenia after he served in the Vietnam War. He has learned to live with his condition and enjoys a successful career in psychology, and as an advocate in the mental health movement. The event is sponsored by WNC and the Disability Awareness Coalition of Northern Nevada.

Holiday Craft Sale

Thursday, Nov. 6, 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Bristlecone Building – WNC Carson City

Information: Kathryn Clark Ross: 445-3260

Booth rental: $25

Start making crafts and inviting friends to Western's annual Holiday Craft Sale. Booth space rentals are available. Sponsored by the Classified Council.

WNMTC Presents Glorious "South Pacific"

Carson City Community Center

Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, Nov. 8-23

7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday

Cost: $14 youth, $16 students and seniors, $18 general admission

Tickets and Information: 445-4249

The Western Nevada Musical Theatre Company will present nine performances of Rodgers and Hammerstein's Pulitzer Prize-winning musical, South Pacific in Carson City. The play brings to life two love stories set in the Polynesian Islands during World War II with a powerhouse, big-Broadway score, including "There is Nothing Like a Dame," "Some Enchanted Evening," and "Wash That Man Right Outta My Hair."

Annual Wildcats Athletics Fund-raiser

Friday, Jan. 16, 2009

Cost: $100 per ticket, or $700 per table of eight

Information: WNC Foundation: 445-3240

Guest speaker will be Adam Silver, deputy commissioner and chief operating officer for the National Basketball Association. Includes dinner and silent auction. Plan now to help raise funds for our baseball and softball teams!